The Georgetown—Scott County Parks and Recreation Department is promoting these ideals in its sporting activities, programs, and sports related events. The items listed in the above sections constitute conduct, justifying the noted penalty and representing unsportsmanlike conduct. Should any unsportsmanlike conduct occur, not specifically addressed in the previous sections, the Georgetown—Scott County Parks and Recreation Department, in its discretion, may institute penalties for such behavior consistent with this policy. In determining whether an incident or unsportsmanlike conduct has occurred, the rules of that particular sport may be considered.

6. Procedures Following Incident—When a person engages in unsportsmanlike behavior the Georgetown—Scott County Parks and Recreation Department’s sporting activities and related sports events, recreation supervisors, recreation leaders, league supervisors, and/or league officials will have the individuals involved in the dispute escorted from the park or facility at which the event is occurring. During such time, the sporting event or program will be stopped until those involved have left the park or facility property. If a person(s) refuses to leave the premises, the Georgetown—Scott County Police Department will be contacted and asked to enforce the ruling of the officials.

Individuals removed from the park or facility will be sent a notification letter stating their violation of the altercation policy. The individual will then have seven days from the receipt date of the registered mailed letter to respond with a written statement, explaining or defending their involvement and setting out their perception of the altercation as it occurred. The response must be received by the office of the Georgetown—Scott County Parks and Recreation Department's Director (140 Pavilion Dr, Georgetown, KY 40324) on or before the seventh day from the receipt date of the registered mailed letter. NO written statement will be considered in the investigation after the seven days. After the statements are received, an investigation will be conducted and the Georgetown—Scott County Parks and Recreation Department will render a judgment of the altercation within ten working days from the statement deadline. A panel consisting of the department director/director's designee, program superintendent and the program supervisor of that particular program in which the altercation occurred, will conduct the investigation. During the investigation, the individual(s) accused will be suspended from all sporting activities and/or sports related events. Those found in violation of this policy, or who are not content with the panel's decision, may file an appeal to the office of the director of the Georgetown—Scott County Parks and Recreation Department, as noted above. In filing an appeal, an individual(s) will have five business days to respond in writing from notification of the decision, and said appeal shall be received in the director's office, on or before, the fifth day after notification of the decision. Individuals may be asked to appear before the Georgetown—Scott County Parks and Recreation Board. All appeal decisions are final and are not subject to review.

If the Georgetown—Scott County Parks and Recreation Department deems a physical or verbal altercation as a flagrant and deliberate act of violence, the department reserves the right to enforce a more severe punishment within this established disciplinary code.
